- Kaunas, Lithuania to debut as Final Four host from May 19 to 21

With the Turkish Airlines EuroLeague's most competitive season ever bringing new drama each week, tickets to the 2023 Turkish Airlines Final Four Final Four in Kaunas, Lithuania, are sure to be in high demand as they go on sale to the general public on Tuesday, January 17 at 9:00 CET!

Tickets will be available online only, through www.f4tickets.com.

The 2023 Turkish Airlines EuroLeague Final Four marks the first time that the most exciting weekend in world basketball will land in Lithuania. As such, it is also the Final Four debut for the state-of-the-art Zalgirio Arena, whose seating capacity for basketball is more than 15,000 spectators. The home of Zalgiris Kaunas, the arena was opened in 2011 and is the largest indoor arena in the Baltic region.

The Final Four will start on Friday, May 19, with semifinal showdowns at 18:00 and 21:00 local time. After a weekend full of off-the-court fun around the city, the Third Place Game will tip off on Sunday at 17:00 local time, following which the Championship Game, starting at 20:00, will crown the best team of an already unforgettable season.

General public tickets – all of which provide seating for four games total, two each on Friday and Sunday – are available seven different price categories ranging from €56.25 per game (€225 total) to €128.75 per game (€515 total), plus service charges.

After buying tickets, customers who are unable to attend may sell their tickets via the official fan-to-fan marketplace that is also accessible at www.f4tickets.com. Tickets purchased via unauthorized sales channels will not be valid for admittance.

VIP hospitality tickets will also be made available on January 17. Interested fans and businesses can review all the exclusive benefits on www.f4tickets.com. For any additional information, please contact f4tickets@euroleague.net
