

EuroStep to debut Tuesday, live on YouTube

The new EuroStep show, focusing on the Turkish Airlines EuroLeague's hottest topics, will debut on Tuesday, February 22 at 17:30 CET. Dane Arlauckas and Sofia del Prado will host the weekly show, which will be streamed live on YouTube.

On each episode, Arlauckas and Del Prado will be joined by a special guest and together they will delve into the latest news in the EuroLeague. Among other features, they will review the best content from EuroLeague digital platforms and across social media, share tips for EuroLeague Fantasy Challenge, interact live with viewers' questions and comments on YouTube, and preview and make predictions for the coming round's games.

The guests will be a fantastic mix of basketball players, influencers, experts and fans who love the EuroLeague! The first guest will be Anthony Goods from Swish Cultures and the host of the EuroLeague Watchalong.

Arlauckas is a familiar face for EuroLeague fans. He has been the play-by-play announcer on EuroLeague TV for the EuroLeague Basketball Adidas Next Generation Tournament at recent Final Fours and a sideline reporter at Real Madrid home games. Del Prado is a Spanish former basketball player and TV host. She represented Spain at Miss Universe 2017, bringing a message of how sports, especially basketball, helped her to overcome bullying.

Together, Arlauckas and Del Prado will present a riveting program that will become appointment viewing for anyone who loves basketball.
